

MAKE ROOM

Dr. Jeffrey Garner, a transformative leader, President of the San Francisco Lighthouse, a Beloved Community expression and as a San Francisco Night Minister in the longest standing night ministry tradition. His leadership vision aims to engage urban contexts with hope and collaboration, paving the way for transformative pathways.

A passionate educator, Dr. Garner brings academic rigor and emotional intelligence into focus and communicates transformative content through graduate lectures, everyday sermons, speciality seminars, personal coaching, and his three-year Masterclass, Way of the Beloved, a Memetic Leadership Model. As an author, he continually pushes the envelope with fresh, relevant, and impassioned contributions to spirituality, community, and personal development.

In his coaching role, Dr. Garner guides individuals spiritually and curates communities, guiding wayfarers into contemplative tools and spiritual hacks and faith skills. Specializing in the development of the preaching and story-formed teaching, he excels in creating cultures of growth and transformation, emphasizing spiritual intimacy and the concept of belovedness.

Dr. Jeffrey Garner and Dr. Mike Hayes are dedicated to guiding individuals toward joy and spiritual clarity. Join them in the transformative journey to Make Room, where you'll shed the weights holding you back, focus your "happiness radar" on internal needs, and ignite the hunger for positive, actionable energy—a path to a more joyful life.
